IS ANYONE LISTENING?

The PD this morning has an article regarding ICE arresting three people Tuesday at court in defiance of new state law.

I am a little confused about this. Our County officials are upset and calling the detention of illegals by ICE undermining the immigrant trust of our laws? Are they not the criminals?

This is going to put fear in our community? Maybe only the ones that are here illegally. It may make the rest of us safer.

Sonoma County officials declare they are at odds with the laws of the United States Immigration policies regarding people illegally entering the United States. Our laws allow immigrants to enter legally and those who enter illegally are criminals. Can anyone deny that?

Those who enter illegally deny those who wait in line to legally enter the United States. Is that the kind of country we are? We allow and coddle illegals denying those who try to enter legally?

Did we vote for Sonoma County to be in line with criminals against the immigration laws of the United States?

Is anyone paying attention?
